

A high-contrast, black and white close-up photograph of a woman's eye. The eye is the central focus, looking directly at the viewer. The eyelashes are long, dark, and heavily coated with mascara, creating a dramatic, fanned-out effect. The eyeliner is dark and smoky, blending into the eye makeup. The skin around the eye is visible, showing fine lines and texture. The overall mood is intense and artistic.

Terms & Conditions

Another
Design

Terms & Conditions

The following Terms and Conditions of Service apply to all services and products provided by Another Design. All work is carried out on the understanding that the client has fully agreed to all of the following terms and conditions.

Deposit & Final Payment

- A deposit of 50% may be required upfront for certain services before work on the project can begin. This is non-refundable once the project has started. Final payment is required upon completion of the project. Costs are for digital files only.

Supplying Resources

- All copywriting needs to be spellchecked and graphics supplied in the correct format before the project starts. Please provide PDF, EPS, or transparent PNG files for logos and other artwork and JPEG or TIFF files for images. You can provide copywriting within the email or attached as a text document.

Draft Files & Revisions

- Draft versions of certain artwork may be provided inside a restricted Dropbox folder. These files are watermarked and cannot be downloaded but can be viewed. Five free rounds of revisions are included with every design. A round of revisions could be requests for modifications to the general design, specific elements, request for larger changes, and any addition or alternation to the copy. £25.00 is charged per additional revision.

Delivery & Replacement Files

- Upon completion, only the final product and other necessary files will be transferred. Files are transferred digitally and free of charge via Dropbox. If you would like the files posted to you please inform us before completion of the project.

Printing

- Printing and delivery can be arranged on the clients behalf for a £30.00 admin fee. The cost of printing will be forwarded and full payment of the design and printing costs will be required before the order is placed. Quantity and prices will be confirmed beforehand.

Priority Charge

- +25% of total cost. A priority charge may be an option for projects that need to meet a very tight deadline. By choosing to this service you're ask us to prioritise your project over all other work and potentially work overtime to ensure that it meets your deadline.

By placing an order for any of the services offered by Another Design by email, verbally or in writing, the client is deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions.